A Sort Of Homecoming

And you know it's time to go
Through the sleet and driving snow
Across the fields of mourning to a light that's in the distance.

And you hunger for the time
Time to heal, 'desire' time
And your earth moves beneath your own dream landscape.

On borderland we run.
I'll be there, I'll be there tonight
A high-road, a high-road out from here.

The city walls are all come down
The dust a smoke screen all around
See faces ploughed like fields that once
Gave no resistance.

And we live by the side of the road
On the side of a hill as the valleys explode
Dislocated, suffocated
The land grows weary of it's own.

O com-away, o com-away, o-com, o com-away, I say I
O com-away, o com-away, o-com, o com-away, I say I

Oh, oh on borderland we run
And still we run, we run and don't look back

I'll be there, I'll be there

Tonight, tonight

I'll be there tonight, I believe

I'll be there so high

I'll be there tonight, tonight.

Oh com-away, I say, o com-away, I say.

The wind will crack in winter time

This bomb-blast lightning waltz.

No spoken words, just a scream

Tonight we'll build a bridge across the sea and land

See the sky, the burning rain

She will die and live again tonight.

And your heart beats so slow

Through the rain and fallen snow

Across the fields of mourning to a light that's in the distance.

Oh, don't sorrow, no don't weep

For tonight at last I am coming home.

I am coming home.
