Eyes Of A Stranger

Discografie - Lyrics

.Eyes Of A Stranger (03:14)

Bright night, city lights

Paint the bedroom red and white

But all I want is to get some sleep

You're lying next to me

I try to catch your energy

But I don't find the answers I need

I was the one who believed

We all have guardian angels

Find it so hard to believe

I see the eyes of a stranger,

The moment I look at you !

Wake up, duty calls

The sun illuminates the walls

But silence is the language we speak

You're late, and hurry out

I see you vanish in the crowd

And feel the doubt that makes me so weak

I was the one who believed

We all have guardian angels

Find it so hard to believe

I see the eyes of a stranger,

The moment I look at you !

Nobody gets over his first love...

Nobody gets over his first love...

I was the one who believed

We all have guardian angels

Find it so hard to believe

I see the eyes of a stranger,

The moment I look at you !

The moment I look at you...

The moment I look at you...

The moment I look at you...
