Udo mechels

Back against the wall

Check me out, I'm standing here

How do you feel now, my dear

Your were wrong and I was right

(I got) your eyes on me tonight

A million times you had me going up and down, back and forth

You won't get away with it no more

Ooh, you had my back against the wall

But I'm still standing tall

I got my ticket to heaven can't you see it baby

Now, you're calling out my name

I still remember the day

You said I was no good for nothing

Nothing got up and saved me

Remember how you put me down

Got me running 'round and round

Always crawling at your feet

Just to soothe your every need

You turned me inside out and then you had your way with my soul

You won't play your games with me no more

Ooh, you had my back against the wall

But I'm still standing tall

I got my ticket to heaven can't you see it baby

Now, youâ€™re calling out my name

I still remember the day

You said I was no good for nothing

Baby, look whoâ€™s laughing now

You had your chance
