Pretty Green Eyes

Pretty green eyes, so full of sparkle and such life.

And let me remind, she chose not to cry.

It's alright, for your lover has come home.

By your side I'll always stay, you'll never have to be alone.

You'll Never have to be alone (x2)

Pretty green eyes, so full of wonder and despair.

It's all right to cry, for I'll be there to wipe your tears.

And in your arms, together we're in paradise.

It's so nice; you'll never have to be alone.

You'll Never have to be alone (x4)

Pretty green eyes, so full of sparkle and such life.

And let me remind, she chose not to cry.

It's all right, for your lover has come home.

By your side I'll always stay, you'll never have to be alone.

You'll never have to be alone (x2)

Pretty green eyes, so full of wonder and despair.

It's alright to cry, for I'll be there to wipe your tears.

And in your arms, together we're in paradise.

It's so nice, you'll never have to be alone.

Never have to be, Never have to be, Never have to, Never have to be be alone. (x4)
