Wallflowers Angel On My Bike

She knows just what I like

The angel on my bike

She found me down on a two-ton anchor

Tangled up in a wire

She always gets it right

The angel on my bike

I could be killed if the train goes faster

Well, angel, watch my life.

I can't handle a care

I want, but I can't be there

While angel's at prayer

It's 45 miles on that highway

Angel, double a prayer

Half asleep with my eyes on the white lines

Elvis in need of repair

I only wanted to believe

That angel it's me that you need

And there's only, only one heart on that highway

Angel, double a prayer

I can't handle a care

I want, but I can't be there

While angel's at prayer

I can't handle a care
I want, but I can't be there
While angel's at prayer

Now it's hard time on these wheels
These fairytales
Turn to rusted steel
And it's gettin' hard now to believe
She's seein' me

Angel, please, tell me can't you see
Angel it's only me
Angel it's only me

Well I can't take a care
Oh man I want but I can't be there
While angel's at prayer
I can't handle a care
I want, but I can't be there
While angel's at prayer
