Xavier Rudd Generation fade

It was a movement of the people, like many times before, who stood up for peace
and sat down for war,
they ran from there ways,
their old school ways,
fight those different,
killed to be saved, well,

These theories came straight from their minds, their hearts left trembling, deep down inside, well, I know, now know, and I'll know, well I know, what lies beneath,
cuz now he sees,

these feelings may change if we all walk this way,
the youth stir the ship as this generation fades, this feelings may change if we all walk this way,
the youth stir the ship as this generation fades,

Let's move to the middle,
embrace one and all,
see the beauty through the skin,
of the aboriginal,

if your friend has fear,

than help him to heal,
show him the difference gives his world its appeal, well, we're so lucky today,

this earth as a playground, it's culture to amaze well,

I know, now know, I know, and I know,
what lies beneath,
cuz now he sees,

these feelings may change if we all walk this way,
the youth stir the ship as this generation fades,
this feelings may change if we all walk this way,
the youth stir the ship as this generation fades,

these feelings may change if we all walk this way,
the youth stir the ship as this generation fades,
this feelings may change if we all walk this way, the youth stir the ship as this generation fades, fades o it fades

these feelings may change if we all walk this way,
the youth stir the ship as this generation fades,
this feelings may change if we all walk this way,
the youth stir the ship as this generation fades,
