A Moment...like The Longest Day

A moment like the longest day
It seems will last forever
Every look you gave to me
Still flashes in my mind

An' every breath an' every word
When you said to me: "I'm goin'"
I lost myself I lost my own
I said...

I said I'll go to heaven
But I'm goin' to my own prison
To keep my faith from you
To keep my strength from you
My lips are sealed forever
I'll exile myself wherever
To save my soul from you
To save myself from you

That moment now's so far away
But I still can feel it today
Every word I gave to you
Lies frozen deep inside

All I want to say is wrong
All I want to say is senseless
Now the world to me means nothin'
I said...

I said I'll go to heaven
But I'm goin' to my own prison
To keep my faith from you
To keep my strength from you
My lips are sealed forever
I'll exile myself wherever
To save my soul from you
To save myself from you
