Captain Moonlight And Me

Tyres swallowed miles
On the road to Oblivion
Driving all the memories
Into the jaws of nowhere
A thousand shades of gray
Hide the Captain Moonlight
A pile of hardest feelings
And a bunch of sweetest dreams

Carpets of first snow
Glistened in the windows
Two breaths were flaming
Steaming the glass
I'll always remember
The riot in our hearts
And two little diamonds
Sparkling in your eyes

I'm goin' away
Under a starlight gown
Floating in dream
Forever with thee
Instead of an angel
That raised me to rhye
Just Captain Moonlight
Is riding with me
